

THE CATHOLIC MEN'S MINISTRY

PRESENTS

2011 CATHOLIC MEN'S CONFERENCE APRIL 16, 2011

THIS YEAR'S THEME: "FISHERS OF MEN"

MID-DAY MASS CELEBRATED BY
THE MOST REVEREND BISHOP WILLIAM MURPHY

PRESENTATIONS TOPICS

"Smashing the Idols: Manhood and Holiness"

Steven McDonald, a third generation New York City Police Department Detective, is the most seriously injured NYPD officer to have survived his injuries. A parishioner of Our Lady of Lourdes, Malverne, he has become one of the world's most inspirational voices of hope and forgiveness.

"Smashing the Idols: Manhood and Holiness"

Deacon Frank Bice of St. Mary's, Manhasset, although becoming paralyzed as a result of an injury while playing for Sienna College in 1980, began a journey towards religious life that has brought him to us as an inspiring speaker and dedicated Deacon in his parish.

"Finding the Knight Within"

Brian Caulfield is the Founder of the Fathers for Good initiative developed as an idea by Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson. Brian focuses on providing information and encouragement to fathers in a culture that is often hostile to male virtues.

"An Adventure of Faith"

Joe Campo, Director at the St. Francis House, founder of Grassroots Films & Third Order Franciscan devotes his life to evangelization through multimedia and by serving as "father" to the young men who desiring to start over in life have come to call St. Francis House their home.

"Fighting Pornography: The Best Defense is a Good Offense"

Damian Wargo, Co-Founder & Director of Operations for The King's Men, is passionate about building up men in the mold of leader, protector, and provider.

"Sons of the Father"

Father Charles Mangano, is a Pastor at Curé of Ars Church, and Host of "God is Good" on Telecare. "Through my priestly ministry and music, I hope to bring people closer to God and to aid them in their journey toward holiness"
